Course Syllabus

Course Description

This course will define crime and evaluate the various ways crime is measured. Students will be provided with an overview of the more popular criminological theories, emphasizing the biological, psychological and sociological schools of thought. In addition, crime control and prevention strategies as they relate to each theory will be examined in terms of theory, practice, and effectiveness.

Course Objectives

Upon the successful completion of this course the student will be able to:

1. Define crime and how it is measured.
 2. Develop critical thinking skills when evaluating and critiquing theory, policy and research on crime.
 3. Explain the major crime theories in detail and the differences between them.
 4. Apply theories to current crime problems in order to develop an understanding of the possible root causes of criminal behavior.

Required Materials:

Textbook: Criminology The Core, Siegel
The textbook is available in the campus bookstore.

Grading

Your final grade for this course will be based on the following:

- Weekly Quizzes (25%)
- Discussion Posts (25%)
- Mid-term (25%)
- Final (25%)

NOTES:

There will be NO make-up quizzes given. Dates for the quizzes and examinations are given in advance so that students can adjust their schedules accordingly. The lowest quiz grade will be dropped before calculating the average of the quiz scores allowing for one missed quiz or a bad test day.

Discussion posts

See introduction to the discussion board for details about post requirements.

Quizzes

Quizzes will consist of 10 multiple choice questions. You will have 20 minutes to complete the quiz.

Mid-term and Final

The midterm and final will consist of 50 multiple choice questions. The midterm will cover chapters 1-6 and the final will cover chapters 7-12. You will have 90 minutes to complete the exam.

All students should be prepared to spend a minimum of two hours on out of class preparation for each hour of classroom instruction.

This preparation will include but not limited to review of lecture notes, completion of reading assignments, studying of course materials and completion of class projects/papers as assigned.

College Policies

ADA Syllabus Statement

Southern Maine Community College is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution and employer. For more information, please call 207-741-5798.

If you have a disabling condition and wish to request accommodations in order to have reasonable access to the programs and services offered by SMCC, you must register with the disability services coordinator, Sandra Lynham, who can be reached at 741-5923. There will be some documentation for your teachers that must be supplied before accommodations can be given. Further information about services for students with disabilities and the accommodation process is available upon request at this number.

Add-Drop Policy

Students who drop a course during the one-week “add/drop” period in the fall and spring semesters and the first three days of summer sessions receive a 100% refund of the tuition and associated fees for that course. Please note any course that meets for less than the traditional semester length, i.e., 15 weeks, has a pro-rated add/drop period. There is no refund for non-attendance.

End-of-Course Evaluation

In order to gain access to final course grades, students must complete evaluations for each course attended at SMCC. Evaluations are submitted online and can be accessed through the student portal site. Students can access the course evaluation report beginning two weeks before the end of classes. The deadline for submission of evaluations occurs 24 hours after the last day of classes each semester. Instructors will announce when the online course evaluation is available.

Plagiarism Statement

Adherence to ethical academic standards is obligatory. Cheating is a serious offense, whether it consists of taking credit for work done by another person or doing work for which another person will receive credit. Taking and using the ideas or writings of another person without clearly and fully crediting the source is plagiarism and violates the academic code as well as the Student Code of Conduct. If it is suspected that a student in any course in which s/he is enrolled has knowingly committed such a violation, the faculty member should refer the matter to the College’s Disciplinary Officer and appropriate action will be taken under the Student Code of Conduct. Sanctions may include suspension from the course and a failing grade in the course. Students have the right to appeal these actions to the Disciplinary Committee under the terms outlined in the Student Code of Conduct.

College Policies

SMCC Pay-for-Print Policy

Per Page Costs

Each semester students receive a $20 printing credit. The balance resets at the end of the semester and any remaining credits are removed. The cost varies depending upon page size and whether printing is done in black and white or color.

1. There is a $0.10 per page fee for standard 8.5" by 11" black and white documents.
2. The reverse sides of duplex (double-sided) documents are free.
3. There is a $0.50 per page fee for standard 8.5" by 11" color documents.
4. There is a $0.20 per page fee for 8.5" by 14" (legal) or 11" by 17" (tabloid) black and white documents.
5. There is a $1.00 per page fee for 8.5" by 14" (legal) or 11" by 17" (tabloid) color documents.

Duplex charges (printing on both sides of a page) work in the following fashion: One page is $0.10, two pages are $0.10, three pages are $0.20, and four pages are $0.20, etc. The flipsides are free, but another sheet of paper is $0.10. Please be aware that a document with any color at all (when printed to a color printer) will by default be printed in color. You are responsible for setting the print job to print black and white if you do not need color. For directions, please go to the IT Help tab in MySMCC.

Withdrawal Policy

A student may withdraw from a course only during the semester in which s/he is registered for that course. The withdrawal period is the second through twelfth week of the fall and spring semesters and the second through ninth week of twelve-week summer courses. This period is pro-rated for shorter-length courses. To withdraw from a course, a student must complete and submit the appropriate course withdrawal form, available at the Enrollment Service Center (no phone calls, please). The designation "W" will appear on the transcript after a student has officially withdrawn. A course withdrawal is an uncompleted course and may adversely affect financial aid eligibility. Failure to attend or ceasing to attend class does not constitute withdrawal from the course. There is no refund associated with a withdrawal.
