

SMCC NEW STUDENT ORIENTATION EXIT CHECKLIST

○ Get Connected

- Set up and use your SMCC student e-mail account.
- Sign up for text alerts on MySMCC (for snow days, etc.).
- Follow SMCC on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram.

○ Be Prepared

- A week before classes, print your schedule and find where your classes are.
- Purchase your books.
- Arrive to campus early to give yourself time to be ready for class. Don't forget you can ride the bus for free with your SMCC ID.
- Be sure to have your student ID handy to access areas such as tutoring, the library or the fitness center.

○ Pay for College

- Complete the FAFSA to apply for financial aid, available online at fafsa.ed.gov.
- Talk with our financial aid staff to get any questions answered.
- Pay your bill online through My Money on the Maine Guide or at our Billing Office.

○ Get Involved

- Attend the Welcome BBQ.
- Visit the Center for Student Involvement and Leadership (CeSIL) in Spring Point Residence Hall on the South Portland Campus or the Learning Commons on the Midcoast Campus and join a club or organization.
- Play a sport or be a fan. Visit www.gosmccseawolves.com for more information.

○ Take Advantage of Resources

- Visit the Learning Commons and request an orientation to learn about resources like the library and reference librarians, the writing center and tutoring services.

○ Ask Questions

- Who is my faculty advisor? This information is available on your degree audit under My Degree on My Maine Guide.
- Where else can I go for Advising?

Start SMART, Finish STRONG
